

5 THINGS YOU MUST DO AT Givhans Ferry State Park

- 1 Picnic along the Edisto River.
- 2 Bring a book and sit on the back porch of the historic community building and read while watching the river flow by.
- 3 Dip your toes in or float the Edisto River, the longest free-flowing black water river in North America.
- 4 Absorb the history of the park, from the limestone river bluff to its Civilian Conservation Corps beginnings.
- 5 Walk the River Bluff Trail and view the river, or hike the Old Loop Trail and explore the various plant and animal habitats.
