"Take a Kid Fishing"

7:45 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Awards ceremony at 11:15 a.m.

Sponsored by: Participating Grand Strand Piers

Purpose: To promote and introduce young anglers to the sport of fishing and create an opportunity for a parent, relative, or volunteer to spend the day with a child.

Pre-Register: Contact the pier where you want to fish. There is no entry fee; however, those participating at MBSP must pay park admission. You must fill out a registration form to reserve a space.

Rules: One adult/child per team -- anyone 18 years and older may accompany a child. No jigging, plugging, or floating. One pole per person. Adult must stay with child throughout the tournament.

Divisions: Youth anglers 6 years and younger; ages 7-11; ages 12-18. State regulations apply. Only legal sized fish will be counted. Bottom fishing only.

Equipment: Adult/child team may bring their own fishing equipment or the pier will provide complimentary fishing poles for children. No gold hooks. One fishing pole per person.

Awards: Awards will be given to first, second, and third place winners for largest single catch (per child) and the total number of fish caught and released (per child) in each of the three age divisions. Must be present to win.

Amenities: Complimentary snacks and drinks will be provided for participants.

*Volunteers will be available to assist with any fishing questions or equipment issues on the day of event

No smoking is allowed during this event on the Myrtle Beach State Park Pier
