

Great American Backyard Campout

Participant Application

April 17– 18, 2010

Sesquicentennial State Park ~ Columbia, South Carolina

Thank you for applying to participate in the Great American Backyard Campout hosted at Sesquicentennial State Park. This is your chance for an adventure learning how to make a great camping experience for you and your family. Stay overnight with a Park Ranger, spend your day participating in great activities and learn cooking and camping secrets to make every trip more enjoyable. We will even provide a tent for your family to use for the night! The lucky families chosen will be notified by mail with more exciting information, just complete this application form in its entirety and sign at the bottom, and keep your fingers crossed you will be one of the lucky families to join us for our first Great American Backyard Campout!!!

To register for the event:

1. Submit your application by mail, e-mail or fax to the address below.
2. Registration Fee: $25 per family up to 6 people. Limit one application per family. Do not send payment with this application, families chosen will be provided further instructions for payment. Note: 1 4-person tent will be provided to each family.
